In 1888, Ernest Warther's father died when Ernest was only 3 years old, forcing him to take a job as a cow herder at the age of 5. The result earned him the title of the World's Master Carver. We will also see the gardens which hopefully will have over 1500 tulips in bloom. For lunch, we will feast on a buffet at the Dutch Valley Restaurant and Bakery. Then we return to Dover and go to The Famous Endings Funeral Museum, honoring those that have touched our lives.
